RUSSIA DISTURBED.

A Revolution in Politics Imminent and the Country Greatly Excited.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—Queen Victoria has given a half promise to attend a performance of "Ivanhoe." The queen is said to be much interested in the new opera. She has not attended a theatrical performance since the death of Prince Albert, and it was supposed that she would continue this rule throughout her life. It is said that she has heretofore not been pleasantly impressed with Gilbert and Sullivan's productions on account of the way in which high life is held up to ridicule; but Ivanhoe having received the thorough endorsement of the nobility as containing nothing that would offend the most suspeptible aristocrat, she is willing to depart from her seclusion.

The scene in the house of commons today promises to be most animated. Morley has prepared, in his cold, logical cutting way, a severe arraignment of the government, and Mr. Balfour is ready with his most cultivated sarcasm. Mr. Parnell will, it is understood, take part in the discussion and Justin McCarthy has given notice of his intention to make some remarks. Belfour has procured as ammunition a verbatim report of the evidence in the Tipperary trial.

Bismarck's organ, the Hamburg Nachrichten, does not seem to be affected by the semi-official intimation that it may be called upon to answer the charge of wrongfully publishing matters of state that are not public property. It continues to criticise as biterly as ever, not only the general policy, but the personal acts of the emperor and all but charges him with incompetency. Other papers have been held to the strictest accountability for statements made without a suspicion of malice, but which might be con strucţed as reflecting falsely on the imperial policy. The emperor has withheld from action against the Nachrichten because he hesitated to show a spirit of animosity toward Bismarck, and because he lieved the course of the old chancellor to be inspired by an irritation that should soon pass away. Now, however, he has come to the conclusion that there is a studied purpose to discredit him and his authority, and that the attacks are actually having an influence in that direction, hence the Nachrichten will be called to account. Advices from Russia state that no such scenes have been witnessed in Europe since the days of the inquisition as are now going on there. The agents of the holy synod are inquiring everywhere here into the charges of heresy against the secretary's and the latter are being arrested and imprisoned and subjected to brutal treatment to compel them to retract and join the orthodox faction. The Roman Catholics are spared from actual punishment, but even in Poland the Roman Catholic churches have, with a few exceptions, been closed. The expulsion of Jews from Novrgrode involve the ruin of a number of eminent Hebrew families that have lived for centuries in the famous capitol. The police made an attempt to fix on the Jews the burning of Novrgrode cathedral, and thus excite prejudice against them among the more ignorant, The socialists are very active in Australia, preparing for the general election. The social democrats are entering the field for the first time in that country as a political party, and, as in Belgium, they make manhood suffrage one of their demands. At present the franchise in Austria is limited to persons having five florins or more of the property. This excludes the greater number of artisians. Therefore the social democratic movement will be favored by the large majority of working people.

WARSAW, Feb. 16.—Prince Battenieff, who murdered a girl of whom he was jealous, has been dismissed from the army, and sentenced to Siberia. The prince was given opportunities to commit suicide, after the custom of the conitent when an officer falls into disgrace, but he could not summon courage enough to kill himself. The church party, which is unusually strong in the new Spanish house of deputies, has created much disquiet by again requesting the queen regent to interveen in behalf of the pope and the restoration of his temporal power.

WEDDING A TERROR.

Fled at the Approach of his Nuptials--Explanation of a Lover's Absence.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 16.—Will H. Borterman, secretary of the Indiana State florists, and senior member of Beterman Bros., wealthy florists of this city, several days ago suddenly left the city, and his absence is occasioning the greatest surprise. His financial affairs are all right, so that the only explanation offered by his friends is that he was on the eve of marriage to a highly accomplished young lady, but, being painfully diffident and embarrassed in the presence of ladies, he looked forward to his approaching nuptials with feelings of terror, and finally absented himself as the readiest way out of the difficulty.

When last heard from he was in Chicago, from which point he forwarded a letter to one of his brothers, saying that in a few days he would write in explanation of his erratic course. Mr. Berterman is prominent in German circles, and no gentleman has a wider circle of friends in this city than he.

CORPSE UNDER A LOG.

Evidences of a Foul Murder on a Farm Near St. Joseph, Indiana.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 15.—The vil of St. Joseph, six miles north on the Monon railroad, was thrown into a high state of excitement at the discovery of the body of Nicholas Kruss, buried under a log near this place. Three years ago the father of Nicholas died, leaving the little farm to his two sons, Nicholas and Frank. The mother subsequently married Joseph Kallen. The boys permitted them to reside on the place. About a year ago Frank went to Illinois to seek employment, leaving Nicholas home with the old people. Three months ago Nicholas mysteriously disappeared, the statement being first given out that he had gone to visit his brother in Illinois, subsequently that he had gone to Louisville, and the last heard of him was that he was sick in a hospital.

Frank came home and searched every hospital in Louisville, but could get no trace of him. He returned home, and after digging everywhere, at last found the body buried under a log in the woods, a short distance from the farm house. There is no doubt of the fact that a murder was committed, and Kallen and wife are suspected. The parties are under police surveilance until the matter is thoroughly investigated. The dead man was a most excellent man of about thirty-two years of age.

AN ELECTRICAL STORM.

The Telephone and Telegraph Wires Refuse to Perform Their Functions.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—Last night for the second time this winter, a remarkable sudden paralysis of electric communication prevailed throughout the greater portion of the United States. The first symptions were noticed yesterday afternoon, when the increasing moisture in the atmosphere began to clog the telephone and telegraph wires in all directions. At 10 p. m. the trouble became implicably magnified, and for hundreds of miles in a great circle, with this city as a centre, the wires on every route hung as limp and useless almost as so many clotheslines. Up to 2 a. m. the situation showed little if any improvement, and the exchange of news between the larger cities was for the unfortunate telegraph operators like one prolonged tooth-pulling. To.day this situation is unchanged. Up to 11 o'clock there were very few wires working out of Chicago in any direction.

WON'T PROTECT SALVATIONISTS

Wisconsin Officials Say the Army Must Fight Its Own Battles.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 16.—Racine, Wis., is torn up by a fight between city officers and the Salvation Army, and Governor Peck has been appealed to to see that the army has police protection. A Racine special says that the mayor and cheif of police absolutely refuse to give the army protection, notwithstanding the fact that the drunken hoodlums nightly disturb the meetings. Governor Peck, when appealed to by the army, wrote back to the captain thereof that he must certainly be protected in his rights, and called the attention of Racine city officers to their manifest duty in the premises. The mayor and chief of police of Racine declare they had rather resign than protect the army.

FOUR MINERS KILLED

And Several Others Missing and Supposed to be in a Burning Mine.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 16.—The Moyer mine, owned by W. J. Rainey, near Scottdale, Pa., is on fire. Four miners are supposed to be entombed.

LATER.—Four pumpers are known to have been killed and six or seven men are now reported missing. Fifty men were at work when the explosion occurred.

A Sensational Canard.

CHICAGO, Feb 16—A special to the Times from Peoria, Ill., says: There is not a particle of truth in the report that George Gibson has fled. It is a sensational canard made out of whole cloth. Mr. Gibson has been in the city ever since he returned to Chicago. Most of the time he has spent in his room at the National hotel, and he was there yesterday. Saturday he visited the whisky trust office and attended to business.

Fatal Accidental Shooting.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Feb. 16.—While Martin Frey and friend, S. A. June, were cleaning a revolver to day, it was discharged, the ball striking Mrs. Frey over the heart, killing her instantly. June, who lives near Battle Creek, was a guest of Frey's, and while the husband says the shooting was accidental, he is under arrest to await the action of the coroner's jury.

Riot in a Packing House.

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 16.—Tom Wallace was stabbed to death and Dick Cushing and F. Flemming were seriously cut yesterday morning while a fight was in progress among ice-cutters employed by the Swift Packing company. A question of wages provoked the difficulty, which resulted in a riot. Fifteen participants were arrested, but the murderer is unknown.

THE VAN WERT CASE.

Fireman Rodehouse Found Guilty of Assault Only for Killing Engineer VanDevender.

VAN WERT, Ohio, Feb. 16.—After being out thirty-six hours the jury has found H. Rodehouse, the Cincinnati, Jackson and Mackinaw fireman who killed his engineer in the cab of the engine last July, guilty of assault and battery. This ends the most notable criminal case ever tried in the courts of Van Wert county.

EX-GOVERNOR FOSTER.

A Report That He has Been Chosen Secretary of the Treasury.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—The World's special from Washington says: A piece of very well defined gossip eminating from well informed and respectable quarters is afloat tonight, Sunday, to the effect that ex-Governor Foster, of Ohio, has been selected to succeed the late Mr. Windom as secretary of the treasury. The report is strong as it is credited to a prominent and truthful United States senator, who declares that he has his information from a member of the cabinet who attended the cabinet meeting last Friday, when the selection was made. The white house officials, of course, deny all knowledge of any decision in the matter, but it is the invariable practice to deny such things, and the denial in this case means nothing. The nomination of Ex-Gov. Charles Foster, of Ohio, may be looked for in the senate to-day or any day this week. The president is said to have a very poor opinion of Mr. McKinley's financial talents and a very high opinion of Mr. Foster's.

BROILING HOT.

Australia Suffers Greatly by Heat--Distructive Fires.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16.—Australian news was brought yesterday by the steamer Alameda. Christmas, in the antipodes is, of course, midsummer, but this year the heat was unparalleled during the holidays. On New Year's day in Sydney the mercury stood at 83 degrees, the following day 94 degrees and for six days did not fall below 88 degrees. In the interior the heat was still worse, the mercury ranging from 100 to 110 degrees, while in the Condobolin great bush fires swept a district thirty by sixty miles in extent, and destroyed 20,000 sheep. A cyclone in the Hervey group of islands destroyed over seventy houses and nearly all the cocoa nut and bread fruit trees, many sixteen feet in circumference being snapped in two by the gale like pipe stems. The schooner Arora near Raratlonga was wrecked and fourteen lives lost.

ATTACKS HER HUSBAND.

A Lady, Who is Stricken With Hydrophobia, Attempts to Bite Her Husband.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—John W. Pease and his handsome young wife, Agnes, who live at 1510 Wabash avenue, went to church yesterday morning. As they were walking home Mrs. Pease suddenly sprang at her husband and tried to bite him. The husband endeavored to hold his wife away, and, it required all his strength to prevent her from inflicting serious injury on him. Even then she bit herself in the wrist so desperately that the blood spurted from the wound. She was partly carried and partly dragged to her house, and the police called. She was taken to the Detention hospital. It is believed she is afflicted with hydrophobia. Her husband said he could not account for his wife's strange mania.

SMALL-POX QUARANTINE.

Two Thousand People Held Inside an Infected District.

ERIE, Penn., Feb. 16.—Dr. Lee, of the state board of health, and Dr. Woods, of Erie, have completed the quarantining of the Johnsonburg, Elk county, small-pox district, as far as they can reach it.

Mrs. Patrick Halligan and a child died yesterday. There are thirty patients in the quarantine. Over 2,000 of the inhabitants in that section have been quarantined, and armed guards prevent people from getting on or off the trains.

Thieves Raid a Restaurant.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—The plate-glass window of Doussange's restaurant at the corner of Wabash avenue and Hubbard Court, was broken early this morning by burglars. The thieves got several hundred dollars worth of imported cigars, helped themselves to champaigne and oysters, and took a revolver. They were not cracksmen, for the safe was not blown. It is thought that the robbery was committed by the lodging house loafers with whom the city is infested, and not by professional thieves.

Gibson's Case in Court.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—The whisky trust directors held an important secret meeting this morning, at which the exposure of the alleged plot to blow up the Shufeldt distillery was discussed. Another meeting will be held to-night, at which a statement to the public will be prepared and issued. George J. Gibson, the ex secretary of the trust, was not in Chicago to-day. It is claimed that he is still in Peoria, though there are some who believe that he has left the city. The state grand jury will take up Gibson's case at 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the full array of evidence against the ex-secretary will be presented to that body.

LOST FOR SIX YEARS.

A Wisconsin Girl Found in Good Hands After Being Stolen From Home.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—Six years ago Maud Davids, then seven years old, was kidnapped while playing in the street in front of her home in Gresham, Wis. Since then her mother has never ceased searching for her daughter. Yesterday officers located the child at the house of Mrs. Alice Campbell in this city. Mrs. Campbell seemed so much attached to the child and the girl begged so hard to be allowed to remain with her that the officers did not have the heart to take her away from her benefactress, but notified the mother of the whereabouts of her daughter.

Little Maud says that when stolen she was taken to Milwaukee by a man and his wife, whom she describes as being "very bad," and compelled to beg or steal a certain amount each day. If she returned at night without the stipulated amount she was cruelly beaten. After six months she was deserted by her kidnappers and compelled to beg for her own living. Her pretty face and bright manner attracted the attention of a charitable woman, who brought her to Chicago and secured her a home with Mrs. Campbell.

REMARKABLE SKIN GRAFTING.

A Father's Love Saves His Daughter From an Untimely Grave.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Feb. 16.—A remarkable case of skin grafting has excited considerable interest among the residents of this community. Last summer a young son of Mr. Musser, of this place, built a fire a short distance from his home for the purpose of roasting some potatoes. His mother, seeing the fire, sent her daughter Mary, ten years of age, to bring her brother home. The boy resisted, and in her attempt to force him away, the girl's dress caught fire in the back, and before help arrived she was seriously burned. An examination was made of her injuries, and it was discovered that the skin and flesh on her back, hips, and portions of her limbs was roasted to a crisp, which afterwards festered and dropped off.

After trying other remedies without success, Dr. Darit resorted to skin-grafting, and about three months ago he performed the first operation. The grafts were taken from the arm of the father of the child, who is a stout, healthy man. Nipping off particles of flesh the size of a pea, he would force them down into the raw flesh of the child's back. Of the first ten patches he transplanted, nearly every one produced a new and healthy skin. During the past two months four operations have been performed, and they have been attended with the most flattering results. Although some fifty .pieces of flesh have been removed] from Mr. Musser's arms, he has worked regularly all the time at his business. The patient, during recent weeks, has occupied herself with doing sewing, but very lately she had been obliged to give that up owing to her nervous affection. Her physician is confident that she will experience a complete recovery.

Want a New Treaty.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Feb. 16.—The chiefs of the Iowa Indians met at Topea yesterday and drew up a memorial to President Harrison, praying him to make a new treaty with the government for the sale of their lands, to be ratified and the lands to be allotted them before spring, so that they can get ready to put in their crops. The memorial will be taken to Washington by a delegation of chiefs, who will present it to the president. Many settlers are already on the border waiting for the opening of the unoccupied lands to settlement.

Found Dead in a Hay-mow.

MUNCIE, Feb. 16.—This morning John Ludlow, aged fifty-five years, a well-known carpenter and contractor of this city, was found dead in the haymow of Lane & Ullery's barn. Ludlow was finely educated and at one time quite wealthy, but lost his money by strong drink. He leaves a destitute family.

No Senator Yet.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill, Feb. 16.—In the no-quorum session of the joint assembly to-day there were eighteen members out of the 204 present. The ninty-seventh ballot was taken and resulted as follows: Palmer, 11; Lindly, 4; Stelle, 2; Oglesby, 1. Total, 18. The senate this morning adopted resolutions on the death of General Sherman by a rising vote.

Resort to Fire Arms.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Feb. 16.—A party of negroes on their way to church near Pottersburg yesterday morning, quarreled over a cake walk and appealed to arms. Every man had a pistol. Willis Mattox was shot dead, a dozen bullets entering his body. Several other combatants were desperately wounded.

Sudden Death of a Ligonier Man.

LIGONIER, Ind., Feb. 16.—Col. B. F. Draper, a leading citizen and officer of the Electric Light works, died very suddenly yesterday of pneumonia.

THE HEIR TURNS UP!

Alleged to Have Been Dead, James Dignan Appears and Wants His Share of an Estate.

A law case of considerable interest has been commenced in the circuit court, the petition in the case having been filed by T. E. Ellison, as attorney for the plaintiff, James Dignan. It recites the facts which are as follows: Over twenty years ago Phillip Dignan died near Maples in this county, leaving his wife, Elizabeth Dignan, and two children, James and Mary. The mother being insane, the children were sent to the Catholic orphan asylum at Rensalear. After they had been there for a few years, they were apprenticed out to persons and grew to young manhood and womanhood. In 1886, Mary, having been wedded to George Japp, of this city, commenced proceedings to partition the little farm which had been left by their father and the court divided it as follows, one-third to Mrs. Japp, one-third to James Dignan and one-third to the insane mother, and Mr. Japp bought the farm for $900. Mr. Japp then brought suit to declare the son, James Dignan, dead and asked that an administrator be appointed upon his estate. He was appointed such administrator and as such acknowledges the receipt of $1,003 33, of which he paid to Mrs. Japp $217.48 and the same amount into court for the insane mother, who, having afterwards died in the asylum, he takes out letters of administration for which he charges himself up with having received $755. Afterwards as administrator of his wife's mother's estate he receipts to the clerk of the court for the sum of $402.12, and asks to pay the remainder over to his wife. Now James Dignan, the son, whom it had been alleged was dead, appears upon the scene and seeking Mr. Ellison for his attorney files his petition in court. The petition charges that the plaintiff, James Dignan, lived in Mr. Jaap's family for five months, and that he, Jaap, had promised to pay plaintiff his share of the estate, which he has failed to do. James claims in his petition that he was ignorant of the proceedings mentioned above and asks that he may receive his share of his father and his mother's estate.

THE COURT CALENDAR.

In police court this morning a colored cook, named George Jaines, who runs on the limited train on the Pittsburg road, was arraigned before the mayor for assault and battery on Ed. Webel, a white man, who is also employed on the same train. There seems to have been a bad feeling existing between the two men and altercations have occurred before. Yesterday morning early, when the train reached this city a fight took place between them and Webel was cut in the hand, while Jaines received a hard knock in the head with a stone thrown by the white man. Webel had the negro arrested by Officer Rohle and this morning in police court the two fellows told their stories and from their evidence it looks as if one was about as much to blame for the affair as the other. The mayor fined the colored man $20.50 which he paid and was released.

Saturday night Robert Thorpe and a woman, who gave her name fictitiously to the police as Mamie Smith, were arrested on Calhoun street for being drunk and disorderly on Calhoun street. They pleaded guilty in the police court this morning and were sent to jail for eleven days. There were two other prisoners to appear before the mayor this morning. Their names were Robert McKee and James Edward and they were sent to jail for eleven days.

Before Judge Morris Mary Ann Pickle sues John Pickle for divorce, custody of child and $200 alimony. Ada Woods sues Milton B. Woods for divorce and custody of children.

In the superior court Josephine Saudermont has commenced suit by her attorney, M. V. B. Spencer, for divorce from Francis Saudermont.

In the circuit court Joseph Thomson was found guilty of petit larceny, for stealing a sheepskin, fined one cent and sent to jail for twenty days.

Charles Parker is on trial before Judge O'Rourke, in the circuit court, for cutting with intent to kill. The arguments of the attorneys were made this afternoon.

Fred Kreibaum, through his attorney, A. H. Bittinger, enters suit in the superior court against Ada and Richard Worley to foreclose mechanics' lien. Demand, $75.

In Justice France's court at 2 o'clock the case of George Brossard for provoking Policeman John Tremmell, was taken up, and afterwards the cases of Lawrence Hoffner for selling liquor on Sunday and Frank Higby, for disobying a subpœa, were called up for trial.

In Justice Tancey's court, Jacob Kiser was fined $10 and costs for selling liquor after 11 o'clock at night.

In Justice Wilkinson's court the cases of Viola Myers vs. Francis Bolling, and Anna Gifford vs. Mary Hadley, two provoke cases, were continued until March 2.

Still at Large.

CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—United States Marshal Hitchcock has not been able to gain any trace of Spellman, who escaped from the St. Paul deputy marshal Friday night, by jumping from a North Western train near Clybourne station.

DR. H. H. WELLS.

Interesting Sermon Preached by the Evangelist Last Night.

This is the last week of the series of evangelistic meetings of Dr. Wells, who has been in the city for three weeks. His preaching has done a great deal of good and results will no doubt follow from it long after the meetings have closed. Yesterday morning seventeen persons united with the First Presbyterian church.

There was an immense congregation at the First Presbyterian church last night to hear the evangelist, every seat in the large audience room being occupied and also many chairs in the aisles. His theme was, "God Co-working with the Sinner, and the Sinner Co-working with God in Salvation." He took his text from the second chapter of Phillipians, "Work out your own Salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God which worketh in you, both to will and to do of His good pleasure."

In his introductory remarks the doctor spoke of the seeming paradox in the text and reconciled the two apparent opposing statements. Men, he said, are prone to stumble over passages in the Bible which if found in a secular work they would have no difficulty in explaining. There are two instrumentalities, he said, at work in the salvation of the sinner—the human and the divine—and they co-operate in the work of saving the soul. The text means what it says —that we are co-workers with God in the great plan of salvation. God requires the sinner to do his part, and does not do for him what he can do for himself, but God does his part. When God foreordains an end He foreordains the means and the sinner is required to make use of these means. The doctor illustrated this branch of his subject in a plain, interesting way, and told an incident that convulsed his audience with laughter.

In showing what the sinner had to do in the plan of salvation, and how God co-operates with him, he spoke at length on these points:

1. The sinner must admit his rebellion against God, as enlightened by the Holy Spirit. Humanity is by nature spiritually blind, but God stoops down and enlightens us, and when the sinner admits his rebellion he places himself in a position to be saved.
2. The sinner must condemn himself for his rebellion against God, as humbled by the work of the Holy spirit.
3. Make an unconditional surrender to God, as he is enabled to do by the spirit.
4. Make a solemn vow of loyalty to God for the future, as moved by the spirit.
5. Plead for mercy through the intercession of the spirit.
6. Believe in his eternal salvation as assured him by the Savior.
7. Do the will of God, as impelled by the spirit.

In all of these the sinner and God work together for salvation, and God comes to his aid, inspires him to do right and walk right. In closing the doctor urged the sinner to do his part and co-operate with God for the salvation of his soul. An interesting after meeting was held in the lecture room of the church.

To-night Dr. Wells will preach upon the subject, "Are We Responsible to God for What We Believe?" This is a sermon to infidels, skeptics, the unconverted and all who are not evangelical in their belief, and will be one of the most interesting yet preached by the doctor in this city.

BIG FLAMES

Causing the Loss of Nearly Half a Million Dollars.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 16.—News comes from New Westminster, B. C., that the city yesterday suffered a loss of nearly half a million dollars by a disastrous fire.

It also caused the death of John McCannon, a volunteer fireman, who was burned under a falling wall. Another man is said to be buried in the ruins. Fire started in the premises occupied by F. Stierski, on Columbia street. The whole block of buildings was in a blaze before the firemen got to work.

When the flames were nearly under control an explosion occurred, bursting all of the hose pumping on the fire, and breaking every pane of glass within a radius of half a mile.

The Masonic Temple, adjoining, which had up to this time been considered safe, now caught fire. It was a four-story brick building, valued at $80,000.

Stephen A. Taber, of Logansport, Ind., was expected to arrive in this city today for the purpose of closing up the negotiations to transfer the West Jefferson street lot to the Congregational church, and to transact other business. It is denied that the new trotting association will receive a proposition from him relating to the site of the proposed grounds.

Rev. Father Delaney held a very important meeting yesterday, at which Miss Breen and Miss Katie Farley were appointed collectors of the Young Ladies' Sodality.

QUAY WILL TALK

In the Senate This Afternoon and Also Resign as Chairman of the National Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Late this afternoon Senator Quay will make a personal explanation to the senate concerning the charges affecting his integrity.

The speech will be short, and will, it is understood, contain a denial of the charge that Mr. Quay embezzled the state funds while treasurer of Pennsylvania.

It is further understood that Mr. Quay will explain his action in voting last session to lay aside the federal elections bill in order that the tariff bill might be considered; and that he will charge democratic politicians and democratic newspapers with instigating and circulating the stories detrimental to his character. It is stated in political circles that the senator will follow his statement with his resignation as chairman of the National republican committee.

DEATH BECKONS

And Loved Ones are Summoned to Their Eternal Rest.

Between 4 and 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon occurred the death of Mrs. George Winbaugh, of 117 Gay street. The deceased gave birth to a daughter four weeks ago, soon after which she was taken quite ill with a cold. Typhoid fever set in, which, with cerebral complications, caused her death. Mrs. Winbaugh was an estimable lady, loved by many for her sweet disposition and devotion. She was the wife of George Winbaugh, the East Main street bookbinder, and daughter of Engineer Theodore Titus. Her age was twenty-six years.

The funeral will take place Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. from the house, and at 2 o'clock from the English Lutheran church.

On Sunday occurred the death of Jonathan James, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Lathrop, on East Main street. The deceased was born June 21, 1821, in Chester county, Pa., and moved to Avilla, Pa., in 1860. He built and conducted for ten years the St. James hotel at that place, bringing it to the front as a very popular hostelry. After his wife died in 1889 he moved to Fort Wayne, where he made his home with his daughter up to the time of his death. The surviving children are as follows: Theodore B., a business man at Muskegan, Mich.; L. James, of the Fleming manufactory, this city; Mrs. Lathrop, this cit. The funeral will take place at Avilla Wednesday morning, the remains leaving here at 8:05 a. m. that day. It is requested that friends desiring to view the remains will call at the residence on East Main street between 2 and 4 o'clock Tuesday.

WAR RELICS.

Joe Brimmer Exhibits Some Interesting War Papers.

Joe Brimmer, the sign artist, placed in his show window on West Main street, a collection of very interesting sketches and illustrations of General Sherman's battles. Among them is a Harper's containing Sherman's review of the troops upon the capture of Savannah; another one showing the general reviewing his army in Washington at the close of the rebellion; a Philadelphia Enquirer of the date when the news was received of the fall of Atlanta. These are only a few papers to be found in the collection. They are vivid reminders of those stirring times.

SIGNING BONDS.

The Mayor and City Clerk Enter Upon a Laborious Task.

Mayor D. L. Harding and City Clerk Rudy C. Reinewald are very busy men just now. They have entered upon the task of signing their names three thousand times upon 200 improvement bonds which bear 3,000 coupons. These are the street improvement bonds for the paving of Calhoun, Hanna, DeWald, Washington streets, Broadway, Creighton avenue and other streets. The filling out of the bonds falls to the city clerk, who, with his deputy, Dan McKendry, will be deeply engaged in the work all of the present week.

STOLE HIS MONEY.

An Indianapolis Salesman Relieved of $600 While Asleep.

NEW CASTLE, Feb. 16.—A. L. Bowman, a traveling salesman for a hardware house at Indianapolis, and who lives here, came home late Saturday night with $600, which he had collected during the day, and, arriving too late to deposit in a bank, took it home with him. To secure it he placed his pantaloons containing the money under his pillow, and slept soundly until morning, when he found the pantaloons on the floor and the money and two valuable gold watches belonging to himself and wife missing. It is thought that some one saw him make the collections and followed him home to get the swag.

THE fee and salary bill now before the Indiana legislature will not apply to those now in or already elected to office.

JAY GOULD's daughter Nellie is said to have made up her mind not to marry. She certainly has a right to do as she pleases in regard to this matter.

"JACK, THE RIPPER" is again terrorizing London, and the police are in fear that he will tire of killing women and turn his attention to the "bobbies."

MRS. RIDER HAGGARD and Mrs. Stanley think American women keep their houses too warm. Well, they have too. When a man comes home from his "club" at 1 and 2 o'clock in the morning he wants the house warm, and it generally is, unless he can sneak into bed without waking his wife.

MR. CLEVELAND's letter against the free coinage of silver under existing financial conditions has proved quite a bombshell in the free coinage camp. It is believed by many that Mr. Cleveland injured his chance for re-nomination in 1892 by his courage and candor, and that the sequel may prove that he is as unluckily honest now as then.

A CANVAS of twenty-seven state legislatures, made by reporters of the New York Herald, in regard to the Democratic presidential nomination in 1892, resulted as follows: Cleveland, 1,515; Hill, 199; scattering, 276. This vote immediately following the publication of Mr. Cleveland's silver letter, which, in the opinion of a few Democrats, retires him as a presidential possibility, is, to say the least, significant.

MR. HUBBELL's bill to legalize and govern the operations of building associations conducted on the national plan was the subject of long debate in the Indiana legislature Saturday. Perhaps the strongest opposition came from Senator Hays. All admitted that the bill had merit. Finally, on motion of Mr. Hays, all that part of it affecting Indiana associations, was stricken out, leaving it to apply only to foreign associations doing business in the state. In this amended form the bill passed.

THE production of beer in the United States reached a total of 29,328,536 barrels last year, an increase of 3,117,216 barrels over 1889. This would give every one of the 62,000,000 population a little over a half barrel apiece. A good many men, probably most of the women and nearly all of the children do not drink any beer at all, so that the moderate beer drinker's consumption for the year must be a couple of barrels or so. There are a good many men, however, who are walking breweries, and get away with their barrel in less than a month.

FRED D. MUSSEY, the well known newspaper correspondent, in an extended article in the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, writes on the subject, "Is Marriage a Failure." This man Mussey, who is now located at Washington, D. C., married Miss Annie Foster, one of the sweetest and most accomplished ladies of the west and daughter of ex-Governor Foster, of Ohio, but owing to his vicious habits made life miserable in his home and his wife obtained a divorce from him. To such men as Mussey, marriage will always be a failure.

THE Indiana house committee on apportionment has prepared bills, which have been endorsed by the democratic caucus, and which will be reported to the house in a day or two. Comparatively few changes from the present law are recommended. Those affecting the congressional districts are the following: Jefferson county is taken out of the Fourth district and put in the Third; Union is taken out of the Fourth and put in the Sixth, and Shelby is taken out of the Seventh and Rush out of the Sixth and both put in the Fourth. Ten changes are made in senatorial districts, and about as many in the representative districts.

THE old soldiers of this city did honor to the memory of Gen. Sherman. They see their leaders of more than a century ago passing away one by one. To the soldiers the death of an old leader has additional sadness. It emphasizes the flight of time and the rapid slaughter which time makes in the ranks. Time is more deadly than the rebel bullets now and the per cent. of dead each year grows larger with alarming rapidity. The day is not far distant when the veteran will be a picture of tottering age and only a few hundred will live to tell to their grandchildren the tale of the battles they fought.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Mr. Hayden's bill empowering city councils and boards of trustees of incorporated towns to authorize street railway companies to operate electric lines was passed.

The bill giving to the alumni of the state university the election of three of the eight trustees of that institution, the election of the other five remaining in the hands of the state board of education as at present, was passed with little opposition under a suspension of the rules. The bill provides no additional appropriation; simply gives to the university graduates a minority voice in the management of the institution.

Mr. Holcomb's bill providing for the transfer of insane convicts from the state prisons to the central hospital for the insane was the next to be considered. There was substantially but one opinion as to the merits of this bill, but several senators spoke upon it, urging its passage in the interest of humanity and decency. It is a measure which should have been passed years ago. It provides that room shall be suitably prepared in the hospital for the confinement of those convicts, who will still be in prison to all intents and purposes, but will receive the comforts and treatment that are due them. Thirty-nine senators voted for the bill, which was all the members present.

The bill to create a state board of arbitration and mediation was the next in order. It provides for the appointment of a board of arbitration by the governor, the duties of the board to be the settlement of differences between employers and employes, and the general looking after the welfare of wage earners. The powers of the board, as prescribed in the bill, are chiefly advisory.

FAST HORSES.

F. D. Pearse Receives Two Very Fine Trotting Stallions.

Frank D. Pearse has received from Thomas Cole & Son, of Pierceton, Ind., two very fine trotting stallions, which he will handle in preparation for the spring races. One of them, Coastman, was sired by Bourbon Wilkes.

He was purchased in the fall of 1886, of James Miller, Paris, Ky., by whom he was bred. He is a brown, without white, and when fully matured will be 15.3 hands high and will weigh 1100 pounds, while his carriage is plain he is very attractive to look at, and one of the best dispositioned colts imaginable. His track education, while short, was of the sensational order. The first time he was ever driven a mile beside another horse, he went a mile in 2:47, making a record of that in the fifth heat at Anderson, and the second start he made was in the 3 year-old class at Wabash, Indiana, which he won in straight heats taking a record of 2:37½. His next and last start was at Cambridge City, Indiana, October 22, 1890, in the 2:35 pacing class in a field of seven aged campaigners.

He won the race in straight heats in 2:25½, 2:25½ and 2:26.

The other animal, Pierceton, was sired by Louis Napoleon.

Analysis of his breeding shows four crosses to Hambletonian 10; two to Abdallah 15; three to Mambrino Chief 11; two to Volunteer 25; one to Pilot jr., 12; one to Gray Eagle, and one pacing cross to Tom Crouder.

The citizens' gravel road meeting will be held at the circuit court room tomorrow evening. The Business Men's exchange has the matter very much at heart, and is hopeful of striking down the toll gates and admitting free the farmer whose trade is now diverted to other market towns. This has just been done in Tippecanoe county, and the great increase of business reported by the merchants of Lafayette should stimulate every resident of Fort Wayne to secure like benefits to our city.

"OUGHT I TO JOIN THE CHURCH?"

Interesting Sermon on This Subject Preached by Rev. J. S. Ainslie.

The Congregational church was crowded yesterday morning to hear the sermon of Rev. James S. Ainslie, the pastor, on the subject, "Ought I to Join the Church?" He took his text from the 47th verse of the 2d chapter of Acts, "And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." His discourse was a practical and interesting discussion of the duty of those professing Christianity to connect themselves with the church. A profession of religion, he said, does not imply that one is perfect, nor is it necessary that a person should be so in order to make it his duty to connect himself with some denomination of Christianity, for we all fall short of the standard of perfection in Christian life—that of the Divine Master who came to earth to save us from our sins. Neither is it necessary that every doubt upon the subject of religion should be settled before we are fitted to join the church. These doubts, ofttimes come to a Christian who is already in the church. A study of God's word, a growth in grace and in faith will remove many of these doubts from our mind, and in the church is the safest place for us to investigate these questions. Nor is it necessary, the speaker said, that we should have some sort of wonderful or dramatic religious experience before we are in a fit condition to become a member of a church. Any one who has a prevailing sympathy for religion and a hope that he is a Christian, who has committed himself to Christ and who has resolved to do those things which he distinctively thinks are right and abstain from doing those things which he distinctively thinks are wrong, can and ought to be a member of the church.

The pastor then proceeded to speak of some of the reasons why it is the duty of every Christian to be in the church. First. It is the natural place for every Christian. It does not take away any of his freedom. What is wrong for him to do as a member of the church, is just as wrong for him to do when not a member of the church. The question of being in or out of the church does not alter his responsibility to God. Second. It promotes the Christian's own good. When temptations come he has more safeguards thrown around him, and he has others who are interested in his welfare. Third. While in the church the Christian gets more benefits from the preaching and the study of the work of God and enjoys those religious privileges which the church affords. Fourth. Organized and united effort can do more good for Christ's cause. Men outside of the church often say they are doing as much as those in it. You will be better off and will do more good as a soldier of Christ's army than as a "bushwhacker." If you are a Christian put on the uniform, wear the badge, you will be given increased strength, and can do more for Christ. Fifth. Christ commands it. The speaker referred to several passages of scripture where this duty of Christians was taught.

Many say that joining the church is a solemn step to take. Yes, said the speaker, there are a good many solemn steps to take in this life. "It is a solemn thing to be married," said a Scotch girl to her father. "Yes, my lassie," was the reply, "but it is a good deal more solemn thing not to be married." Joining the church is the Christian's duty, a duty that should be done at once, said Rev. Ainslie. Join some church. If not our church, join some other church.

Said the speaker in closing: "Our communion service will be held next Sunday morning, when we expect to welcome a number of new members into our church fellowship. We would kindly urge any who are not yet avowed disciples of the Lord to come in with us at that time. It would discharge a solemn duty we all owe to Him for His sacrifice and suffering for us. It would be a comfort and a strength to you. It would be a joy to your friends. It would be an example to others for good. It would be an inspiration and cheer to the church. It would be well pleasing to God; for He rejoices to have His children own and confess Him, as we rejoice when our children come to us with new purposes of love and obedience and service. The kernel of it all is faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as the soul's Redeemer and King; a faith that is inspired by love, and evidenced by obedience; a faith which forms the life after divine patterns, and carries it along toward all that is pure and good, accepting God's word as guide. Will you come?"

AN UNSOLICITED HONOR.

Col. C. A. Zollinger Spoken of for the Next G. A. R. Commander.

Military circles are awake over the question of who is to be the next Indiana department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, to succeed Gil R. Stormont. Several persons have received honorable mention but the name of Col. C. A. Zollinger, of this city, is among the foremost prospective ones. The old soldiers in Allen county, without political preference are working in behalf of Colonel Zollinger and the expression is freely made that he ought to be the coming man. This county was once before honored in this direction by the appointment of Col. D. N. Foster to the place of department commander.

Texas farmers have an enormous home market as well as Twelve Thousand Miles of Railroad and Ocean Outlet for their surplus crop. Here farmers are able to work out of doors every day in the year, and stock run on grass from January to January. Many farmers in Kansas and in the north-west are selling whatever equity they have in their farms, buying the cheap lands of Texas. And in many instances clearing the price of the land from their first years crops. The latest census shows that few farmers in Texas have their farms mortgaged. THE SKIN.

Is an important factor in keeping good health; if it does not act in the way intended by nature, its functions are performed by other organs,—the Kidneys and the Lungs; and the result is a breakdown of general health.

Swift's Specific

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

The Prospects for 1891 Fairly Good —Brief Mention of Persons and Things Industrial.

Usually February is a dull month for our manufacturers, but we believe, taking all our industries into consideration, this year may be said to be an exception to the rule. Business in some of our establishments is extremely good; in others fairly good, while a few are giving employment to their men merely to hold them so as to be ready for the rush when it comes.

A noticeable feature of the year is the business which is coming to the manufacturers of furniture and implements. The Fort Wayne Furniture company, the Peters Box and Lumber company, and the Fleming Manufacturing company are unusually busy. In all these establishments the working force has recently been increased and their factories are veritable bee hives of industry. The manufacturers of building material are also enjoying a fair trade, though, perhaps, the volume of business in this line will fall a little short of that of the two preceding years. In the railroad shops some departments are busy, while others are not doing much. Work in the car department of the Pennsylvania shops has been a little slack. A recent order for fifty-five dairy product cars will, however, give the men steady employment for several weeks. In the machine, boiler, blacksmith and erecting departments the construction of several new Class R engines and the usual repair work is keeping the men busy. The same condition of affairs exists at the Bass works. The machine moulding room is crowded with work, and in the machine room proper some of the lathes are kept running day and night. The car wheel department is not running at its full capacity, though many wheels are being turned out here daily. The Kerr Murray works have resumed operations after a long idle spell. This morning the American Wheel works, after a two weeks' shutdown, were set in motion, and everything around there presents a livtly appearance. The Electric Light works, the organ factory and the Olds Wagon works are fairly busy and working the usual number of men. Taken as a whole, the manufacturing interests of Fort Wayne may be said to be in a flourishing condition. The men are paid good wages and times should be good. Although the season is early yet we must say that the prospects for a "phenomenal" business boom the coming season is not very encouraging. A month may bring a wonderful change, however, and let us hope to see more buildings erected in 1891 than were ever before known in the history of the city.

BRIEF MENTION.

Louis Zonner, of the Bass machine shop, is on the sick list.

Henry Oystemeyer, who works for Rhinesmith & Simonson, is sick and off duty.

Frank Girard, a helper in the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, went home sick this morning.

Harry Hayes, a machinist at the Bass works, is in Van Wert setting up an engine for his firm.

The Pittsburg pay car will be here Tuesday and the Wabash pay car Wednesday of this week.

William Couts, of the Fort Wayne road, had his thumb amputated by Dr. E. J. McOscar yesterday.

Charles Nix, moulder in the Bass works, has returned to work after being laid up a week with rheumatism.

J. McCarthy reported for duty at the car shops of the Pennsylvania company this morning. He had been sick three weeks.

Reubin Fronefield has returned to work after a two days' sickness. He worked in the shops of Rhinesmith & Simonson.

Owing to light freight traffic, one switch engine and crew were taken off of the Pittsburg railroad in this city this morning.

W. L. Cotts, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, suffered the loss of a thumb making a coupling at Lima, Ind., yesterday.

W. W. Newingham, employed in the east end store rooms of the Pennsylvania company, has purchased a valuable pug dog. He is a good looking young man and the caresses bestowed upon the canine are exceedingly annoying to his young lady acquaintances.

Engineer J. C. Pierson, of the Pittsburg, has a very sick child, on account of which he was unable to take his regular run to-day.

Captain R. S. Harrison was again at his post in the Pittsburg shops this morning, after a severe illness of three weeks' duration.

William Levi, an employe of the electric light works, is very ill with eczema. He recently came here from Brooklyn and boards at the Windsor hotel.

George Young was the successful bidder for the contract to erect the building for the pulley works, in the Ninth ward. Work will be commenced upon the building at once.

James Hanley, of the Pennsylvania company's store room, has purchased a new bicycle. He is practicing every day, and expects to be the champion rider ere the season ends.

The Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad hauled 10,000 car loads of ice during the year of 1890. This was the largest business in the line ever known in the history of the road.

E O. Hobrook is operating the typewriter in G. L. Potter's officer to day. J. O'Brien took Hobrook's place and P. Alter was placed in O'Brien's position. These changes are only temporary.

John Miller, of the Bass works, was the victim of a Valentine joke which was more amusing to his companions than to himself. He is good natured, however, and will not be disturbed long by a little incident of that kind.

Thursday the new Wabash sleepers will commence their run between Toledo and Kansas City. This train, which leaves this city for the west at 1:40 p. m., is called the "Toledo and Kansas City cannon ball."

The Carpenters union will occupy their new hall, the old Morton club room, next week. At a meeting Saturday night no action was taken, as expected, in the matter of wages, This omission was a surprise to the contractors.

Owing to light shipments the Empire freight line was compelled to take off its oyster train. Local dealers in the delicious bivalve will now have them shipped by express at a $1.40 rate per 100 pounds. This class of freight was carried by the Empire at 90 cents per 100 pounds.

John Dolan, a machinist in the Pennsylvania shops, is at home from Chicago, where he spent Sunday with his father, Thomas Dolan, who last Wednesday had one of his lower limbs amputated. Mr. Dolan, sr., had been afflicted for fifteen years with erysipelas, which terminated in the loss of a leg. He is lying at a hospital in Chicago, and will survive the operation. He was working for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and lived at Garrett, Ind.

Artist Mosher, of 125 State street, is getting up an album of all the passenger conductors who run on the various roads into Chicago. The Fort Wayne road will be represented as follows: S. McMahon, George Bonter, Lyman Blakesley, John Welch, Charles Ross, Mager Mook, John Cain, Cliff Ellenwood, James Finnell, John Shean, J. Rowan, T. M. Glenn, William Benedict, Maurice Prindiville, William Dedrick, John Horning, Thomas O'Rourke, Harry Tague, O. Irwin, William Bartels, Charles Pinney, Ed Longhenry and A. Studer. Nearly all of these "cons" reside in this city.

Eli Younе, of Shoals, a prominent citizen, is dead of cancer.

I have a cousin who is a printer, says ex-Mayor J. B. Loughran, of North Des Moines, Iowa. Some years ago he was employed in this city where they were printing circulars for Chamberlain. He had a deep seated cold and terrible cough, and while setting up copy he made up his mind to buy a bottle. It cured him and that was the first I ever knew of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have been strongly in its favor ever since. My own experience and that of my family convinces me that this remedy is the best in the world. That may be strong language, but that is what I think. SANTA CLAUS SOAP

My Country: 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where our fathers
died;
Land where our Mothers
cried,
Over the wash-tub tied
Let freedom ring.
My native country thee—
Land of the noble, free—
Thy name I love;
I love thy tucks and frills
But oh: what laundry bills;
My soul with horror thrills;
When I think of thee.
Let music swell the breeze,
And blow through all the trees
Hail SANTA CLAUS:
Let tired mortals wake
And gladly try a cake,
Let all for cleanness sake,
Join the applause.

His neck was broken in a railroad wreck at Birmingham, Ala., March 19, 1887, while in the discharge of his duties as a switchman. A railroad man with a broken neck and a broken record—whose body is virtually and truly patched together, and to whom the famous Dr. Sankfield, of San Francisco, offered $10,000 for his body after he was through with it. He will tell you all about it. He was formerly a switchman, Wabash yards, Fort Wayne.

RUSSIA DISTURBED.

A Revelation in Politics Imminent and the Country Greatly Excited.

London, Feb. 16.—Queen Victoria has given a half promise to attend a performance of "Ivanhoe." The queen is said to be much interested in the new opera. She has not attended a theatrical performance since the death of Prince Albert, and it was supposed that she would continue this rule throughout her life. It is said that she has heretofore not been pleasantly impressed with Gilbert and Sullivan's productions on account of the way in which high life is held up to ridicule; but Ivanhoe having received the thorough endorsement of the nobility as containing nothing that would offend the most susceptible aristocrat, she is willing to depart from her seclusion.

The scene in the house of commons today promises to be most animated. Morley has prepared, in his cold, logical cutting way, a severe arraignment of the government, and Mr. Balfour is ready with his most cultivated sarcasm. Mr. Parnell will, it is understood, take part in the discussion and Justin McCarthy has given notice of his intention to make some remarks. Balfour has procured as ammunition a verbatim report of the evidence in the Tipperary trial.

Bismarck's organ, the Hamburg Nachrichten, does not seem to be affected by the semi-official intimation that it may be called upon to answer the charge of wrongfully publishing matters of state that are not public property. It continues to criticise as bitterly as ever, not only the general policy, but the personal acts of the emperor and all but charges him with incompetency. Other papers have been held to the strictest accountability for statements made without a suspicion of malice, but which might be construed as reflecting falsely on the imperial policy. The emperor has withheld from action against the Nachrichten because he hesitated to show a spirit of animosity toward Bismarck, and because he lieved the course of the old chancellor to be inspired by an irritation that should soon pass away. Now, however, he has come to the conclusion that there is a studied purpose to discredit him and his authority, and that the attacks are actually having an influence in that direction, hence the Nachrichten will be called to account. Advices from Russia state that no such scenes have been witnessed in Europe since the days of the inquisition as are now going on there. The agents of the holy synod are inquiring everywhere here into the charges of heresy against the secretary's and the latter are being arrested and imprisoned and subjected to brutal treatment to compel them to retract and join the orthodox faction. The Roman Catholics are spared from actual punishment, but even in Poland the Roman Catholic churches have, with a few exceptions, been closed. The expulsion of Jews from Novgrodo involve the ruin of a number of eminent Hebrew families that have lived for centuries in the famous capitol. The police made an attempt to fix on the Jews the burning of Novgrodo cathedral, and thus excite prejudice against them among the more ignorant, The socialists are very active in Australia, preparing for the general election. The social democrats are entering the field for the first time in that country as a political party, and, as in Belgium, they make manhood suffrage one of their demands. At present the franchise in Austria is limited to persons having five florins or more of the property. This excludes the greater number of artisians. Therefore the social democratic movement will be favored by the large majority of working people.

Warsaw, Feb. 16.—Prince Battenlaff, who murdered a girl of whom he was jealous, has been dismissed from the army, and sentenced to Siberia. The prince was given opportunities to commit suicide, after the custom of the conitent when an officer falls into disgrace, but he could not summon courage enough to kill himself. The church party, which is unusually strong in the new Spanish house of deputies, has created much disquiet by again requesting the queen regent to interveen in behalf of the pope and the restoration of his temporal power.

WEDDING A TERROR.

Fled at the Approach of his Nuptials—Explanation of a Lover's Absence.

Indianapolis, Feb. 16.—Will H. Berterman, secretary of the Indiana State florists, and senior member of Beterman Bros., wealthy florists of this city, several days ago suddenly left the city, and his absence is occasioning the greatest surprise. His financial affairs are all right, so that the only explanation offered by his friends is that he was on the eve of marriage to a highly accomplished young lady, but, being painfully diffident and embarrassed in the presence of ladies, he looked forward to his approaching nuptials with feelings of terror, and finally absented himself as the readiest way out of the difficulty.

When last heard from he was in Chicago, from which point he forwarded a letter to one of his brothers, saying that in a few days he would write in explanation of his erratic course. Mr. Berterman is prominent in German circles, and no gentleman has a wider circle of friends in this city than he.

CORPSE UNDER A LOG.

Evidences of a Foul Murder on a Farm Near St. Joseph, Indiana.

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 16.—The village of St. Joseph, six miles north on the Monon railroad, was thrown into a high state of excitement at the discovery of the body of Nicholas Kruss, buried under a log near this place. Three years ago the father of Nicholas died, leaving the little farm to his two sons, Nicholas and Frank. The mother subsequently married Joseph Kallen. The boys permitted them to reside on the place. About a year ago Frank went to Illinois to seek employmen', leaving Nicholas home with the old people. Three months ago Nicholas mysteriously disappeared, the statement being first given out that he had gone to visit his brother in Illinois, subsequently that he had gone to Louisville, and the last heard of him was that he was sick in a hospital.

Frank came home and searched every hospital in Louisville, but could get no trace of him. He returned home, and after digging everywhere, at last found the body buried under a log in the woods, a short distance from the farm house. There is no doubt of the fact that a murder was committed, and Kallen and wife are suspected. The parties are under police surveillance until the matter is thoroughly investigated. The dead man was a most excellent man of about thirty-two years of age.

AN ELECTRICAL STORM.

The Telephone and Telegraph Wires Refuse to Perform Their Functions.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—Last night for the second time this winter, a remarkable sudden paralysis of electric communication prevailed throughout the greater portion of the United States. The first symptions were noticed yesterday afternoon, when the increasing moisture in the atmosphere began to clog the telephone and telegraph wires in all directions. At 10 p. m. the trouble became implicably magnified, and for hundreds of miles in a great circle, with this city as a centre, the wires on every route hung as limp and useless almost as so many clotheslines. Up to 2 a. m. the situation showed little if any improvement, and the exchange of news between the larger cities was for the unfortunate telegraph operators like one prolonged tooth-pulling. To-day this situation is unchanged. Up to 11 o'clock there were very few wires working out of Chicago in any direction.

WON'T PROTECT SALVATIONISTS

Wisconsin Officials Say the Army Must Fight Its Own Battles.

Milwaukee, Feb. 16.—Racine, Wis., is torn up by a fight between city officers and the Salvation Army, and Governor Peck has been appealed to to see that the army has police protection. A Racine special says that the mayor and cheif of police absolutely refuse to give the army protection, notwithstanding the fact that the drunken hoodlums nightly disturb the meetings. Governor Peck, when appealed to by the army, wrote back to the captain thereof that he must certainly be protected in his rights, and called the attention of Racine city officers to their manifest duty in the premises. The mayor and chief of police of Racine declare they had rather resign than protect the army.

FOUR MINERS KILLED

And Several Others Missing and Supposed to be in a Burning Mine.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 16.—The Moyer mine, owned by W. J. Rainey, near Scottdale, Pa., is on fire. Four miners are supposed to be entombed.

Later.—Four pumpers are known to have been killed and six or seven men are now reported missing. Fifty men were at work when the explosion occurred.

A Sensational Canard.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—A special to the Times from Peoria, Ill., says: There is not a particle of truth in the report that George Gibson has fled. It is a sensational canard made out of whole cloth. Mr. Gibson has been in the city ever since he returned to Chicago. Most of the time he has spent in his room at the National hotel, and he was there yesterday. Saturday he visited the whisky trust office and attended to business.

Fatal Accidental Shooting.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Feb. 16.—While Martin Frey and friend, S. A. June, were cleaning a revolver to day, it was discharged, the ball striking Mrs. Frey over the heart, killing her instantly. June, who lives near Battle Creek, was a guest of Frey's, and while the husband says the shooting was accidental, he is under arrest to await the action of the coroner's jury.

Riot in a Packing House.

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 16.—Tom Wallace was stabbed to death and Dick Cushing and F. Flemming were seriously cut yesterday morning while a fight was in progress among ice-cutters employed by the Swift Packing company. A question of wages provoked the difficulty, which resulted in a riot. Fifteen participants were arrested, but the murderer is unknown.

THE VAN WERT CASE.

Fireman Rodehouse Found Guilty of Assault Only for Killing Engineer VanDevender.

Van Wert, Ohio, Feb. 16.—After being out thirty-six hours the jury has found H. Rodehouse, the Cincinnati, Jackson and Mackinaw fireman who killed his engineer in the cab of the engine last July, guilty of assault and battery. This ends the most notable criminal case ever tried in the courts of Van Wert county.

EX-GOVERNOR FOSTER.

A Report That He has Been Chosen Secretary of the Treasury.

New York, Feb. 16.—The World's special from Washington says: A piece of very well defined gossip eminating from well informed and respectable quarters is afloat tonight, Sunday, to the effect that ex-Governor Foster, of Ohio, has been selected to succeed the late Mr. Windom as secretary of the treasury. The report is strong as it is credited to a prominent and truthful United States senator, who declares that he has his information from a member of the cabinet who attended the cabinet meeting last Friday, when the selection was made. The white house officials, of course, deny all knowledge of any decision in the matter, but it is the invariable practice to deny such things, and the denial in this case means nothing. The nomination of Ex-Gov. Charles Foster, of Ohio, may be looked for in the senate to-day or any day this week. The president is said to have a very poor opinion of Mr. McKinley's financial talents and a very high opinion of Mr. Foster's.

BROILING HOT.

Australia Suffers Greatly by Heat—Distructive Fires.

San Francisco, Feb. 16.—Australian news was brought yesterday by the steamer Alameda. Christmas, in the antipodes is, of course, midsummer, but this year the heat was unparalleled during the holidays. On New Year's day in Sydney the mercury stood at 83 degrees, the following day 94 degrees and for six days did not fall below 88 degrees. In the interior the heat was still worse, the mercury ranging from 100 to 110 degrees, while in the Condobolin great bush fires swept a district thirty by sixty miles in extent, and destroyed 20,000 sheep. A cyclone in the Horvey group of islands destroyed over seventy houses and nearly all the cocoanut and bread fruit trees, many sixteen feet in circumference being snapped in two by the gale like pipe stems. The schooner Arora near Raratlonga was wrecked and fourteen lives lost.

ATTACKS HER HUSBAND.

A Lady, Who is Stricken With Hydrophobia, Attempts to Bite Her Husband.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—John W. Pease and his handsome young wife, Agnes, who live at 1510 Wabash avenue, went to church yesterday morning. As they were walking home Mrs. Pease suddenly sprang at her husband and tried to bite him. The husband endeavored to hold his wife away, and, it required all his strength to prevent her from inflicting serious injury on him. Even then she bit herself in the wrist so desparately that the blood spurted from the wound. She was partly carried and partly dragged to her house, and the police called. She was taken to the Detention hospital. It is believed she is afflicted with hydrophobia. Her husband said he could not account for his wife's strange mania.

SMALL-POX QUARANTINE.

Two Thousand People Held Inside an Infected District.

Erie, Penn., Feb. 16.—Dr. Lee, of the state board of health, and Dr. Woods, of Erie, have completed the quarantining of the Johnsonburg, Elk county, small-pox district, as far as they can reach it.

Mrs. Patrick Halligan and a child died yesterday. There are thirty patients in the quarantine. Over 2,000 of the inhabitants in that section have been quarantined, and armed guards prevent people from getting on or off the trains.

Thieves Raid a Restaurant.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—The plate-glass window of Donsangee's restaurant at the corner of Wabash avenue and Hubbard Court, was broken early this morning by burglars. The thieves got several hundred dollars worth of imported cigars, helped themselves to champaigne and oysters, and took a revolver. They were not cracksmen, for the safe was not blown. It is thought that the robbery was committed by the lodging house loafers with whom the city is infested, and not by professional thieves.

Gibson's Case in Court.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—The whisky trust directors held an important secret meeting this morning, at which the exposure of the alleged plot to blow up the Shufeldt distillery was discussed. Another meeting will be held to-night, at which a statement to the public will be prepared and issued. George J. Gibson, the ex secretary of the trust, was not in Chicago to-day. It is claimed that he is still in Peoria, though there are some who believe that he has left the city. The state grand jury will take up Gibson's case at 2 o'clock this afternoon, when the full array of evidence against the ex-secretary will be presented to that body.

LOST FOR SIX YEARS.

A Wisconsin Girl Found in Good Hands After Being Stolen From Home.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—Six years ago Maud Davids, then seven years old, was kidnapped while playing in the street in front of her home in Gresham, Wis. Since then her mother has never ceased searching for her daughter. Yesterday officers located the child at the house of Mrs. Alice Campbell in this city. Mrs. Campbell seemed so much attached to the child and the girl begged so hard to be allowed to remain with her that the officers did not have the heart to take her away from her benefactress, but notified the mother of the whereabouts of her daughter.

Little Maud says that when stolen she was taken to Milwaukee by a man and his wife, whom she describes as being "very bad," and compelled to beg or steal a certain amount each day. If she returned at night without the stipulated amount she was cruelly beaten. After six months she was deserted by her kidnappers and compelled to beg for her own living. Her pretty face and bright manner attracted the attention of a charitable woman, who brought her to Chicago and secured her a home with Mrs. Campbell.

REMARKABLE SKIN GRAFTING.

A Father's Love Saves His Daughter From an Untimely Grave.

Bellefonte, Pa., Feb. 16.—A remarkable case of skin grafting has excited considerable interest among the residents of this community. Last summer a young son of Mr. Musser, of this place, built a fire a short distance from his home for the purpose of roasting some potatoes. His mother, seeing the fire, sent her daughter Mary, ten years of age, to bring her brother home. The boy resisted, and in her attempt to force him away, the girl's dress caught fire in the back, and before help arrived she was seriously burned. An examination was made of her injuries, and it was discovered that the skin and flesh on her back, hips, and portions of her limbs was roasted to a crisp, which afterwards festered and dropped off.

After trying other remedies without success, Dr. Dartt resorted to skin-grafting, and about three months ago he performed the first operation. The grafts were taken from the arm of the father of the child, who is a stout, healthy man. Nipping off particles of flesh the size of a pea, he would force them down into the raw flesh of the child's back. Of the first ten patches he transplanted, nearly every one produced a new and healthy skin. During the past two months four operations have been performed, and they have been attended with the most flattering results. Although some fifty pieces of flesh have been removed] from Mr. Musser's arms, he has worked regularly all the time at his business. The patient, during recent weeks, has occupied herself with doing sewing, but very lately she had been obliged to give that up owing to her nervous affection. Her physician is confident that she will experiance a complete recovery.

Want a New Treaty.

Guthrie, O. T., Feb. 16.—The chiefs of the Iowa Indians met at Topeo yesterday and drew up a memorial to President Harrison, praying him to make a new treaty with the government for the sale of their lands, to be ratified and the lands to be allotted them before spring, so that they can get ready to put in their crops. The memorial will be taken to Washington by a delegation of chiefs, who will present it to the president. Many settlers are already on the border waiting for the opening of the unoccupied lands to settlement.

Found Dead in a Hay-mow.

Muncie, Feb. 16.—This morning John Ludlow, aged fifty-five years, a well-known carpenter and contractor of this city, was found dead in the haymow of Lane & Ullery's barn. Ludlow was finely educated and at one time quite wealthy, but lost his money by strong drink. He leaves a destitute family.

No Senator Yet.

Springfield, Ill, Feb. 16.—In the no-quorum session of the joint assembly to-day there were eighteen members out of the 204 present. The ninety-seventh ballot was taken and resulted as follows: Palmer, 11; Lindly, 4; Stelle, 2; Oglesby, 1. Total, 18. The senate this morning adopted resolutions on the death of General Sherman by a rising vote.

Resort to Fire Arms.

Augusta, Ga., Feb. 16.—A party of negroes on their way to church near Pottersburg yesterday morning, quarreled over a cake walk and appealed to arms. Every man had a pistol. Willis Mattox was shot dead, a dozen bullets entering his body. Several other combatants were desperately wounded.

Sudden Death of a Ligonier Man.

Ligonier, Ind., Feb. 16.—Col. B. F. Draper, a leading citizen and officer of the Electric Light works, died very suddenly yesterday of pneumonia.

THE HEIR TURNS UP!

Alleged to Have Been Dead, James Dignan Appears and Wants His Share of an Estate.

A law case of considerable interest has been commenced in the circuit court, the petition in the case having been filed by T. E. Ellison, as attorney for the plaintiff, James Dignan. It recites the facts which are as follows: Over twenty years ago Phillip Dignan died near Maples in this county, leaving his wife, Elizabeth Dignan, and two children, James and Mary. The mother being insane, the children were sent to the Catholic orphan asylum at Rensselear. After they had been there for a few years, they were apprenticed out to persons and grew to young manhood and womanhood. In 1886, Mary, having been wedded to George Japp, of this city, commenced proceedings to partition the little farm which had been left by their father and the court divided it as follows, one-third to Mrs. Japp, one-third to James Dignan and one-third to the insane mother, and Mr. Japp bought the farm for $900. Mr. Japp then brought suit to declare the son, James Dignan, dead and asked that an administrator be appointed upon his estate. He was appointed such administrator and as such acknowledges the receipt of $1,003.35, of which he paid to Mrs. Japp $217.48 and the same amount into court for the insane mother, who, having afterwards died in the asylum, he takes out letters of administration for which he charges himself up with having received $755. Afterwards as administrator of his wife's mother's estate he receipts to the clerk of the court for the sum of $402.12, and asks to pay the remainder over to his wife. Now James Dignan, the son, whom it had been alleged was dead, appears upon the scene and seeking Mr. Ellison for his attorney files his petition in court. The petition charges that the plaintiff, James Dignan, lived in Mr. Jaap's family for five months, and that he, Jasp, had promised to pay plaintiff his share of the estate, which he has failed to do. James claims in his petition that he was ignorant of the proceedings mentioned above and asks that he may receive his share of his father and his mother's estate.

THE COURT CALENDAR.

In police court this morning a colored cook, named George Jaines, who runs on the limited train on the Pittsburg road, was arraigned before the mayor for assault and battery on Ed. Webel, a white man, who is also employed on the same train. There seems to have been a bad feeling existing between the two men and altercations have occurred before. Yesterday morning early, when the train reached this city a fight took place between them and Webel was cut in the hand, while Jaines received a hard knock in the head with a stone thrown by the white man. Webel had the negro arrested by Officer Rohle and this morning in police court the two fellows told their stories and from their evidence it looks as if one was about as much to blame for the affair as the other. The mayor fined the colored man $20.50 which he paid and was released.

Saturday night Robert Thorpe and a woman, who gave her name fictitiously to the police as Mamie Smith, were arrested on Calhoun street for being drunk and disorderly on Calhoun street. They pleaded guilty in the police court this morning and were sent to jail for eleven days. There were two other prisoners to appear before the mayor this morning. Their names were Robert McKee and James Edward and they were sent to jail for eleven days.

Before Judge Morris Mary Ann Pickle sues John Pickle for divorce, custody of child and $200 alimony. Ada Woods sues Milton B. Woods for divorce and custody of children.

In the superior court Josephine Saudermont has commenced suit by her attorney, M. V. B. Spencer, for divorce from Francis Saudermont.

In the circuit court Joseph Thomson was found guilty of petit larceny, for stealing a sheepskin, fined one cent and sent to jail for twenty days.

Charles Parker is on trial before Judge O'Rourke, in the circuit court, for cutting with intent to kill. The arguments of the attorneys were made this afternoon.

Fred Kreibaum, through his attorney, A. H. Bittinger, enters suit in the superior court against Ada and Richard Worley to foreclose mechanics' lien, Demand, $75.

In Justice France's court at 2 o'clock the case of George Brossard for provoking Policeman John Tremmoll, was taken up, and afterwards the cases of Lawrence Hoffner for selling liquor on Sunday and Frank Higby, for disobying a subpœa, were called up for trial.

In Justice Tancey's court, Jacob Kiser was fined $10 and costs for selling liquor after 11 o'clock at night.

In Justice Wilkinson's court the cases of Viola Myers vs. Francis Bolling, and Anna Gifford vs. Mary Hadley, two provoke cases, were continued until March 2.

Still at Large.

Chicago, Feb. 16.—United States Marshal Hitchcock has not been able to gain any trace of Spellman, who escaped from the St. Paul deputy marshal Friday night, by jumping from a North Western train near Clybourne station.

DR. H. H. WELLS.

Interesting Sermon Preached by the Evangelist Last Night.

This is the last week of the series of evangelistic meetings of Dr. Wells, who has been in the city for three weeks. His preaching has done a great deal of good and results will no doubt follow from it long after the meetings have closed. Yesterday morning seventeen persons united with the First Presbyterian church.

There was an immense congregation at the First Presbyterian church last night to hear the evangelist, every seat in the large audience room being occupied and also many chairs in the aisles. His theme was, "God Co-working with the Sinner, and the Sinner Co-working with God in Salvation." He took his text from the second chapter of Phillipians, "Work out your own Salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God which worketh in you, both to will and to do of His good pleasure."

In his introductory remarks the doctor spoke of the seeming paradox in the text and reconciled the two apparent opposing statements. Men, he said, are prone to stumble over passages in the Bible which if found in a secular work they would have no difficulty in explaining. There are two instrumentalities, he said, at work in the salvation of the sinner—the human and the divine—and they co-operate in the work of saving the soul. The text means what it says—that we are co-workers with God in the great plan of salvation. God requires the sinner to do his part, and does not do for him what he can do for himself, but God does his part. When God foreordains an end He foreordains the means and the sinner is required to make use of these means. The doctor illustrated this branch of his subject in a plain, interesting way, and told an incident that convulsed his audience with laughter.

In showing what the sinner had to do in the plan of salvation, and how God co-operates with him, he spoke at length on these points:

1. The sinner must admit his rebellion against God, as enlightened by the Holy Spirit. Humanity is by nature spiritually blind, but God stoops down and enlightens us, and when the sinner admits his rebellion he places himself in a position to be saved.
2. The sinner must condemn himself for his rebellion against God, as humbled by the work of the Holy spirit.
3. Make an unconditional surrender to God, as he is enabled to do by the spirit.
4. Make a solemn vow of loyalty to God for the future, as moved by the spirit.
5. Plead for mercy through the intercession of the spirit.
6. Believe in his eternal salvation as secured him by the Savior.
7. Do the will of God, as impelled by the spirit.

In all of these the sinner and God work together for salvation, and God comes to his aid, inspires him to do right and walk right. In closing the doctor urged the sinner to do his part and co-operate with God for the salvation of his soul. An interesting after meeting was held in the lecture room of the church.

To-night Dr. Wells will preach upon the subject, "Are We Responsible to God for What We Believe!" This is a sermon to infidels, skeptics, the unconverted and all who are not evangelical in their belief, and will be one of the most interesting yet preached by the doctor in this city.

BIG FLAMES

Causing the Loss of Nearly Half a Million Dollars.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 16.—News comes from New Westminster, B. C., that the city yesterday suffered a loss of nearly half a million dollars by a disastrous fire.

It also caused the death of John McCannon, a volunteer fireman, who was burned under a falling wall. Another man is said to be buried in the ruins. Fire started in the premises occupied by F. Stierski, on Columbia street. The whole block of buildings was in a blaze before the firemen got to work.

When the flames were nearly under control an explosion occurred, bursting all of the hose pumping on the fire, and breaking every pane of glass within a radius of half a mile.

The Masonic Temple, adjoining, which had up to this time been considered safe, now caught fire. It was a four-story brick building, valued at $80,000.

Stephen A. Taber, of Logansport, Ind., was expected to arrive in this city today for the purpose of closing up the negotiations to transfer the West Jefferson street lot to the Congregational church, and to transact other business. It is denied that the new trotting association will receive a proposition from him relating to the site of the proposed grounds.

Rev. Father Delaney held a very important meeting yesterday, at which Miss Breen and Miss Katie Farley were appointed collectors of the Young Ladies' Sodality.

QUAY WILL TALK

In the Senate This Afternoon and Also Resign as Chairman of the National Committee.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Late this afternoon Senator Quay will make a personal explanation to the senate concerning the charges affecting his integrity.

The speech will be short, and will, it is understood, contain a denial of the charge that Mr. Quay embezzled the state funds while treasurer of Pennsylvania.

It is further understood that Mr. Quay will explain his action in voting last session to lay aside the federal elections bill in order that the tariff bill might be considered; and that he will charge democratic politicians and democratic newspapers with instigating and circulating the stories detrimental to his character. It is stated in political circles that the senator will follow his statement with his resignation as chairman of the National republican committee.

DEATH BECKONS

And Loved Ones are Summoned to Their Eternal Rest.

Between 4 and 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon occurred the death of Mrs. George Winbaugh, of 117 Gay street. The deceased gave birth to a daughter four weeks ago, soon after which she was taken quite ill with a cold. Typhoid fever set in, which, with cerebral complications, caused her death. Mrs. Winbaugh was an estimable lady, loved by many for her sweet disposition and devotion. She was the wife of George Winbaugh, the East Main street bookbinder, and daughter of Engineer Theodore Titus. Her age was twenty-six years.

The funeral will take place Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. from the house, and at 2 o'clock from the English Lutheran church.

On Sunday occurred the death of Jonathan James, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Lathrop, on East Main street. The deceased was born June 21, 1821, in Chester county, Pa., and moved to Avilla, Pa., in 1860. He built and conducted for ten years the St. James hotel at that place, bringing it to the front as a very popular hostelry. After his wife died in 1889 he moved to Fort Wayne, where he made his home with his daughter up to the time of his death. The surviving children are as follows: Theodore B., a business man at Muskegon, Mich.; L. James, of the Fleming manufactory, this city; Mrs. Lathrop, this cit. The funeral will take place at Avilla Wednesday morning, the remains leaving here at 8:05 a. m. that day. It is requested that friends desiring to view the remains will call at the residence on East Main street between 2 and 4 o'clock Tuesday.

WAR RELICS.

Joe Brimmer Exhibits Some Interesting War Papers.

Joe Brimmer, the sign artist, placed in his show window on West Main street, a collection of very interesting sketches and illustrations of General Sherman's battles. Among them is a Harper's containing Sherman's review of the troops upon the capture of Savannah; another one showing the general reviewing his army in Washington at the close of the rebellion; a Philadelphia Enquirer of the date when the news was received of the fall of Atlanta. These are only a few papers to be found in the collection. They are vivid reminders of those stirring times.

SIGNING BONDS.

The Mayor and City Clerk Enter Upon a Laborious Task.

Mayor D. L. Harding and City Clerk Rudy C. Reinewald are very busy men just now. They have entered upon the task of signing their names three thousand times upon 200 improvement bonds which bear 3,000 coupons. These are the street improvement bonds for the paving of Calhoun, Hanna, DeWald, Washington streets, Broadway, Creighton avenue and other streets. The filling out of the bonds falls to the city clerk, who, with his deputy, Dan McKendry, will be deeply engaged in the work all of the present week.

STOLE HIS MONEY.

An Indianapolis Salesman Relieved of $600 While Asleep.

New Castle, Feb. 16.—A. L. Bowman, a traveling salesman for a hardware house at Indianapolis, and who lives here, came home late Saturday night with $600, which he had collected during the day, and, arriving too late to deposit in a bank, took it home with him. To secure it he placed his pantaloons containing the money under his pillow, and slept soundly until morning, when he found the pantaloons on the floor and the money and two valuable gold watches belonging to himself and wife missing. It is thought that some one saw him make the collections and followed him home to get the swag.

THE fee and salary bill now before the Indiana legislature will not apply to those now in or already elected to office.

JAY GOULD's daughter Nellie is said to have made up her mind not to marry. She certainly has a right to do as she pleases in regard to this matter.

"JACK, THE RIPPER" is again terrorizing London, and the police are in fear that he will tire of killing women and turn his attention to the "bobbies."

MRS. RIDER HAGGARD and Mrs. Stanley think American women keep their houses too warm. Well, they have too. When a man comes home from his "club" at 1 and 2 o'clock in the morning he wants the house warm, and it generally is, unless he can sneak into bed without waking his wife.

MR. CLEVELAND's letter against the free coinage of silver under existing financial conditions has proved quite a bombshell in the free coinage camp. It is believed by many that Mr. Cleveland injured his chance for re-nomination in 1892 by his courage and candor, and that the sequel may prove that he is as unluckily honest now as then.

A CANVAS of twenty-seven state legislatures, made by reporters of the New York Herald, in regard to the Democratic presidential nomination in 1892, resulted as follows: Cleveland, 1,515; Hill, 199; scattering, 276. This vote immediately following the publication of Mr. Cleveland's silver letter, which, in the opinion of a few Democrats, retires him as a presidential possibility, is, to say the least, significant.

MR. HUBBELL's bill to legalize and govern the operations of building associations conducted on the national plan was the subject of long debate in the Indiana legislature Saturday. Perhaps the strongest opposition came from Senator Hays. All admitted that the bill had merit. Finally, on motion of Mr. Hays, all that part of it affecting Indiana associations, was stricken out, leaving it to apply only to foreign associations doing business in the state. In this amended form the bill passed.

THE production of beer in the United States reached a total of 29,328,636 barrels last year, an increase of 3,117,216 barrels over 1889. This would give every one of the 62,000,000 population a little over a half barrel apiece. A good many men, probably most of the women and nearly all of the children do not drink any beer at all, so that the moderate beer drinker's consumption for the year must be a couple of barrels or so. There are a good many men, however, who are walking breweries, and got away with their barrel in less than a month.

FRED D. MUSSEY, the well known newspaper correspondent, in an extended article in the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, writes on the subject, "Is Marriage a Failure." This man Mussey, who is now located at Washington, D. C., married Miss Annie Foster, one of the sweetest and most accomplished ladies of the west and daughter of ex-Governor Foster, of Ohio, but owing to his vicious habits made life miserable in his home and his wife obtained a divorce from him. To such men as Mussey, marriage will always be a failure.

THE Indiana house committee on apportionment has prepared bills, which have been endorsed by the democratic caucus, and which will be reported to the house in a day or two. Comparatively few changes from the present law are recommended. Those affecting the congressional districts are the following: Jefferson county is taken out of the Fourth district and put in the Third; Union is taken out of the Fourth and put in the Sixth, and Shelby is taken out of the Seventh and Rush out of the Sixth and both put in the Fourth. Ten changes are made in senatorial districts, and about as many in the representative districts.

THE old soldiers of this city did honor to the memory of Gen. Sherman. They see their leaders of more than a century ago passing away one by one. To the soldiers the death of an old leader has additional sadness. It emphasizes the flight of time and the rapid slaughter which time makes in the ranks. Time is more deadly than the rebel bullets now and the per cent. of dead each year grows larger with alarming rapidity. The day is not far distant when the veteran will be a picture of tottering age and only a few hundred will live to tell to their grandchildren the tale of the battles they fought.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Mr. Hayden's bill empowering city councils and boards of trustees of incorporated towns to authorize street railway companies to operate electric lines was passed.

The bill giving to the alumni of the state university the election of three of the eight trustees of that institution, the election of the other five remaining in the hands of the state board of education as at present, was passed with little opposition under a suspension of the rules. The bill provides no additional appropriation; simply gives to the university graduates a minority voice in the management of the institution.

Mr. Holcomb's bill providing for the transfer of insane convicts from the state prisons to the central hospital for the insane was the next to be considered. There was substantially but one opinion as to the merits of this bill, but several senators spoke upon it, urging its passage in the interest of humanity and decency. It is a measure which should have been passed years ago. It provides that room shall be suitably prepared in the hospital for the confinement of these convicts, who will still be in prison to all intents and purposes, but will receive the comforts and treatment that are due them. Thirty-nine senators voted for the bill, which was all the members present.

The bill to create a state board of arbitration and mediation was the next in order. It provides for the appointment of a board of arbitration by the governor, the duties of the board to be the settlement of differences between employers and employes, and the general looking after the welfare of wage earners. The powers of the board, as prescribed in the bill, are chiefly advisory.

FAST HORSES.

F. D. Pearse Receives Two Very Fine Trotting Stallions.

Frank D. Pearse has received from Thomas Cole & Son, of Pierceton, Ind., two very fine trotting stallions, which he will handle in preparation for the spring races. One of them, Coastman, was sired by Bourbon Wilkes.

He was purchased in the fall of 1886, of James Miller, Paris, Ky., by whom he was bred. He is a brown, without white, and when fully matured will be 15.3 hands high and will weigh 1100 pounds, while his carriage is plain he is very attractive to look at, and one of the best dispositioned colts imaginable. His track education, while short, was of the sensational order. The first time he was ever driven a mile beside another horse, he went a mile in 2:47, making a record of that in the fifth heat at Anderson, and the second start he made was in the 3 year-old class at Wabash, Indiana, which he won in straight heats taking a record of 2:37¼. His next and last start was at Cambridge City, Indiana, October 22, 1890, in the 2:35 pacing class in a field of seven aged campaigners.

He won the race in straight heats in 2:25¼, 2:25¼ and 2:26.

The other animal, Piercetori, was sired by Louis Napoleon.

Analysis of his breeding shows four crosses to Hambletonian 10; two to Abdallah 15; three to Mambrino Chief 11; two to Volunteer 25; one to Pilot jr., 12; one to Gray Eagle, and one pacing cross to Tom Crowder.

The citizens' gravel road meeting will be held at the circuit court room tomorrow evening. The Business Men's exchange has the matter very much at heart, and is hopeful of striking down the toll gates and admitting free the farmer whose trade is now diverted to other market towns. This has just been done in Tippecanoe county, and the great increase of business reported by the merchants of Lafayette should stimulate every resident of Fort Wayne to secure like benefits to our city.

"OUGHT I TO JOIN THE CHURCH?"

Interesting Sermon on This Subject Preached by Rev. J. S. Ainslie.

The Congregational church was crowded yesterday morning to hear the sermon of Rev. James S. Ainslie, the pastor, on the subject, "Ought I to Join the Church?" He took his text from the 47th verse of the 2d chapter of Acts, "And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." His discourse was a practical and interesting discussion of the duty of those professing Christianity to connect themselves with the church. A profession of religion, he said, does not imply that one is perfect, nor is it necessary that a person should be so in order to make it his duty to connect himself with some denomination of Christianity, for we all fall short of the standard of perfection in Christian life—that of the Divine Master who came to earth to save us from our sins. Neither is it necessary that every doubt upon the subject of religion should be settled before we are fitted to join the church. These doubts, ofttimes come to a Christian who is already in the church. A study of God's word, a growth in grace and in faith will remove many of these doubts from our mind, and in the church is the safest place for us to investigate these questions. Nor is it necessary, the speaker said, that we should have some sort of wonderful or dramatic religious experience before we are in a fit condition to become a member of a church. Any one who has a prevailing sympathy for religion and a hope that he is a Christian, who has committed himself to Christ and who has resolved to do those things which he distinctively thinks are right and abstain from doing those things which he distinctively thinks are wrong, can and ought to be a member of the church.

The pastor then proceeded to speak of some of the reasons why it is the duty of every Christian to be in the church. First. It is the natural place for every Christian. It does not take away any of his freedom. What is wrong for him to do as a member of the church, is just as wrong for him to do when not a member of the church. The question of being in or out of the church does not alter his responsibility to God. Second. It promotes the Christian's own good. When temptations come he has more safeguards thrown around him, and he has others who are interested in his welfare. Third. While in the church the Christian gets more benefits from the preaching and the study of the work of God and enjoys those religious privileges which the church affords. Fourth. Organized and united effort can do more good for Christ's cause. Men outside of the church often say they are doing as much as those in it. You will be better off and will do more good as a soldier of Christ's army than as a "bushwhacker." If you are a Christian put on the uniform, wear the badge, you will be given increased strength, and can do more for Christ. Fifth. Christ commands it. The speaker referred to several passages of scripture where this duty of Christians was taught.

Many say that joining the church is a solemn step to take. Yes, said the speaker, there are a good many solemn steps to take in this life. "It is a solemn thing to be married," said a Scotch girl to her father. "Yes, my lassie," was the reply, "but it is a good deal more solemn thing not to be married." Joining the church is the Christian's duty, a duty that should be done at once, said Rev. Ainslie. Join some church. If not our church, join some other church.

Said the speaker in closing: "Our communion service will be held next Sunday morning, when we expect to welcome a number of new members into our church fellowship. We would kindly urge any who are not yet avowed disciples of the Lord to come in with us at that time. It would discharge a solemn duty we all owe to Him for His sacrifice and suffering for us. It would be a comfort and a strength to you. It would be a joy to your friends. It would be an example to others for good. It would be an inspiration and cheer to the church. It would be well pleasing to God; for He rejoices to have His children own and confess Him, as we rejoice when our children come to us with new purposes of love and obedience and service. The kernel of it all is faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as the soul's Redeemer and King; a faith that is inspired by love, and evidenced by obedience; a faith which forms the life after divine patterns, and carries it along toward all that is pure and good, accepting God's word as guide. Will you come?"

AN UNSOLICITED HONOR.

Col. C. A. Zollinger Spoken of for the Next G. A. R. Commander.

Military circles are awake over the question of who is to be the next Indiana department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, to succeed Gil R. Stormont. Several persons have received honorable mention but the name of Col. C. A. Zollinger, of this city, is among the foremost prospective ones. The old soldiers in Allen county, without political preference are working in behalf of Colonel Zollinger and the expression is freely made that he ought to be the coming man. This county was once before honored in this direction by the appointment of Col. D. N. Foster to the place of department commander.

TEXAS FARM LANDS

At present valuation will make men rich during the year 1891. The most conservative admit the truth of this assertion.

It is now known that the finest wheat land in the world and suitable for all small grains and fruits and in many instances cotton are

Texas farmers have an enormous home market as well as for their surplus crop. Here farmers are able to work out of doors every day in the year, and stock run on grass from January to January. Many farmers in Kansas and in the north-west are selling whatever equity they have in their farms, buying the cheap lands of Texas. And in many instances clearing the price of the land from their first years crops. The latest census shows that few farmers in Texas have their farms mortgaged. The Texas school fund is the largest of any commonwealth in the world, aggregating in cash and lands some sixty millions of dollars. State taxes are ten cents on the hundred dollars.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

The Prospects for 1891 Fairly Good—Brief Mention of Persons and Things Industrial.

Usually February is a dull month for our manufacturers, but we believe, taking all our industries into consideration, this year may be said to be an exception to the rule. Business in some of our establishments is extremely good; in others fairly good, while a few are giving employment to their men merely to hold them so as to be ready for the rush when it comes.

A noticeable feature of the year is the business which is coming to the manufacturers of furniture and implements. The Fort Wayne Furniture company, the Peters Box and Lumber company, and the Fleming Manufacturing company are unusually busy. In all these establishments the working force has recently been increased and their factories are veritable bee hives of industry. The manufacturers of building material are also enjoying a fair trade, though, perhaps, the volume of business in this line will fall a little short of that of the two preceding years. In the railroad shops some departments are busy, while others are not doing much. Work in the car department of the Pennsylvania shops has been a little slack. A recent order for fifty-five dairy product cars will, however, give the men steady employment for several weeks. In the machine, boiler, blacksmith and erecting departments the construction of several new Class R engines and the usual repair work is keeping the men busy. The same condition of affairs exists at the Bass works. The machine moulding room is crowded with work, and in the machine room proper some of the lathes are kept running day and night. The car wheel department is not running at its full capacity, though many wheels are being turned out here daily. The Kerr Murray works have resumed operations after a long idle spell. This morning the American Wheel works, after a two weeks' shutdown, were set in motion, and everything around there presents a lively appearance. The Electric Light works, the organ factory and the Olds Wagon works are fairly busy and working the usual number of men. Taken as a whole, the manufacturing interests of Fort Wayne may be said to be in a flourishing condition. The men are paid good wages and times should be good. Although the season is early yet we must say that the prospects for a "phenomenal" business boom the coming season is not very encouraging. A month may bring a wonderful change, however, and let us hope to see more buildings erected in 1891 than were ever before known in the history of the city.

BRIEF MENTION.

Louis Zonner, of the Bass machine shop, is on the sick list.

Henry Oystemeyer, who works for Rhinesmith & Simonson, is sick and off duty.

Frank Girard, a helper in the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, went home sick this morning.

Harry Hayes, a machinist at the Bass works, is in Van Wert setting up an engine for his firm.

The Pittsburg pay car will be here Tuesday and the Wabash pay car Wednesday of this week.

William Coute, of the Fort Wayne road, had his thumb amputated by Dr. E. J. McOscar yesterday.

Charles Nix, moulder in the Bass works, has returned to work after being laid up a week with rheumatism.

J. McCarthy reported for duty at the car shops of the Pennsylvania company this morning. He had been sick three weeks.

Reubin Fronefield has returned to work after a two days' sickness. He worked in the shops of Rhinesmith & Simonson.

Owing to light freight traffic, one switch engine and crew were taken off of the Pittsburg railroad in this city this morning.

W. L. Cotts, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, suffered the loss of a thumb making a coupling at Lima, Ind., yesterday.

W. W. Newingham, employed in the cast and store rooms of the Pennsylvania company, has purchased a valuable pug dog. He is a good looking young man and the caresses bestowed upon the canine are exceedingly annoying to his young lady acquaintances.

Engineer J. C. Pierson, of the Pittsburg, has a very sick child, on account of which he was unable to take his regular run to-day.

Captain R. S. Harrison was again at his post in the Pittsburg shops this morning, after a severe illness of three weeks' duration.

William Levi, an employe of the electric light works, is very ill with eczema. He recently came here from Brooklyn and boards at the Windsor hotel.

George Young was the successful bidder for the contract to erect the building for the pulley works, in the Ninth ward. Work will be commenced upon the building at once.

James Hanley, of the Pennsylvania company's store room, has purchased a new bicycle. He is practicing every day, and expects to be the champion rider ere the season ends.

The Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad hauled 10,000 car loads of ice during the year of 1890. This was the largest business in the line ever known in the history of the road.

E. O. Hobrock is operating the typewriter in G. L. Potter's office to day. J. O'Brien took Hobrock's place and P. Alter was placed in O'Brien's position. These changes are only temporary.

John Miller, of the Bass works, was the victim of a Valentine joke which was more amusing to his companions than to himself. He is good natured, however, and will not be disturbed long by a little incident of that kind.

Thursday the new Wabash sleepers will commence their run between Toledo and Kansas City. This train, which leaves this city for the west at 1:40 p. m., is called the "Toledo and Kansas City cannon ball."

The Carpenters union will occupy their new hall, the old Morton club room, next week. At a meeting Saturday night no action was taken, as expected, in the matter of wages. This omission was a surprise to the contractors.

Owing to light shipments the Empire freight line was compelled to take off its oyster train. Local dealers in the delicious bivalve will now have them shipped by express at a $1.40 rate per 100 pounds. This class of freight was carried by the Empire at 90 cents per 100 pounds.

John Dolan, a machinist in the Pennsylvania shops, is at home from Chicago, where he spent Sunday with his father, Thomas Dolan, who last Wednesday had one of his lower limbs amputated. Mr. Dolan, sr., had been afflicted for fifteen years with erysipelas, which terminated in the loss of a leg. He is lying at a hospital in Chicago, and will survive the operation. He was working for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and lived at Garrett, Ind.

Artist Mosher, of 125 State street, is getting up an album of all the passenger conductors who run on the various roads into Chicago. The Fort Wayne road will be represented as follows: S. McMahon, George Bonter, Lyman Blakesley, John Walch, Charles Ross, Mager Mock, John Cain, Cliff Ellenwood, James Pinnell, John Shean, J. Rowan, T. M. Glenn, William Benedict, Maurice Prindiville, William Dedrick, John Horning, Thomas O'Rourke, Harry Tague, O. Irwin, William Bartels, Charles Pinney, Ed Loughbury and A. Studer. Nearly all of these "cons" reside in th's city.

Eli Yeune, of Shoals, a prominent citizen, is dead of cancer.

I have a cousin who is a printer, says ex-Mayor J. B. Loughran, of North Des Moines, Iowa. Some years ago he was employed in this city where they were printing circulars for Chamberlain. He had a deep seated cold and terrible cough, and while setting up copy he made up his mind to buy a bottle. It cured him and that was the first I ever knew of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have been strongly in its favor ever since. My own experience and that of my family convinces me that this remedy is the best in the world. That may be strong language, but that is what I think. My Country: 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing:
Land where our fathers
died;
Land where our Mothers
cried,
Over the wash-tub tied
Let freedom ring.
My native country thee—
Land of the noble, free—
Thy name I love;
I love thy tucks and frills
But oh: what laundry bills;
My soul with horror thrills;
When I think of thee.
Let music swell the breeze,
And blow through all the

Hail SANTA CLAUS:
Let tired mortals wake
And gladly try a cake,
Let all for cleanness sake,
Join the applause.

We have reason to believe that for some years we have had the most popular Embroidery Department in the city, and it will be our constant aim to keep it so.

As usual, our purchases for this department have been very large, and we can assure our patrons that we have secured our stock at old prices, having made our selections before the McKinley bill took effect.

We have special values in Hamburg edgings at 5, 8, 10, 12½, 15, 20, 25, 33 and 38c per yard. Our Nainsook and Swiss Edgings and flouncings will be found specially attractive and moderate in price.

The indications are that Black will be more popular than ever this season, and we have shaped our course accordingly.

We have beautiful Black Imported Lawns in plain, satin stripes, lace stripes, Grenadine effects, Black Organdies, Black Challies, Black Linon de Indi, Black Satines, in fact Black Dress Goods of every description and warranted fast colors.

We take pleasure in showing the new goods to our customers, and invite every lady in the city to come at once, before our busy season actually begins, and look through our stock.

You will find something interesting in every department, coupled with every attention whether you are a purchaser or not.
